

Paul speaking of feelings in 2Cor.

2Co 7:5 For even when we came into Macedonia our flesh had no rest, but we were afflicted on every side: conflicts without, fears within.

phobos: panic, flight, terror

2Co 7:6 But God, who comforts the depressed, comforted us by the coming of Titus;

tapeinos: cast down, lowly, lowly in spirit

2Co 7:7 and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort wherewith he was comforted in you, while he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced yet more.

odumos: moaning, lamentation